Important things to get you started Detasseling

~ If you are on the 7:30 crew, you need to be here by 7:30 a.m. If you are on the 8:30 crew, you need to be here by 8:30 a.m. You will stay with your designated crew the whole season.

~ On the first day we need you to fill out a State and Federal W-4 form as well as an I-9 Employment Eligibility Verification. These have been provided electronically on our website, they will also be available on paper the first day if you need.

~ We also have you fill out an emergency contact form incase something happens to you in the field. This information includes any allergies you might have so that we can make appropriate snacks. This was also made available electronically, and will also be available on paper the first day.

~ You need to bring a sack lunch to eat at the farm or in the field. We do not allow you to leave the farm for lunch, so if you get here and realize you forgot lunch, we can provide you with a meal to eat. We also provide a morning and afternoon snack as well as water and lemonade in the field. Snack this year will be individually wrapped and served to you by a designated person in your crew.

~ Please make sure to eat a good breakfast before you come to work. It is important to make sure that you are fueled before you go into the field in the morning.

~ Sun screen and bug spray are up to you, we will not supply them but highly recommend them. You will be in a corn field a majority of the day. It is important to make sure your skin is protected from the sun and the bugs. Hats and Sunglasses are also a good idea.

~ Most kids like to wear a long sleeve shirt, shorts and old tennis shoes. You must wear shoes in the field. You will get wet, sweaty, dirty and if you feel you might need extra clothes, feel free to pack them.

~ We do expect to work a full day. We will do our best to make sure the crews come in at the end of the day at separate times to prevent the crews from meeting each other. Some days we are done earlier but we will not know that ahead of time. This is all dependent on what needs to be gone through each day.

~ If you need to be gone for any reason, please let the person checking you in know ahead of time. We do have a $0.50 bonus per hour if you do not miss any days of work. Due to Covid-19 we ask that you commit to working the full season and limit coming and going as much as possible.

~ Checks are written at the very end of the season. And will be mailed to you within 30 days of the season ending.

We will also be limiting the number of people on each crew this year to help prevent the spread of COVID-19. We expect to work full days and will do our best to make sure that each crew comes in separate at the end of the day.

1. IF YOU ARE SICK OR FEEL SICK DO NOT COME TO WORK- Please call 507-246-5032 and talk to Karri or Kelsey.
2. PLEASE Bring a mask or face covering with you to work. You will be asked to wear a mask/face-covering at all times except for in the field. You will be outside for most of, if not all of the day, do your best to social distance when with your crew. We are aware that its not always possible.
 - a. We ask that you bring your own mask/face-covering to work. If one is forgotten we will supply one but please do your best to bring your own. Non-mask face coverings would include a face shield, bandana, or anything that can safely and completely cover your nose and mouth and stay on your face without needing to be held up.
3. You will Check in with Karri/Kelsey. We have included the "Vistor and Employee Health Screening Checklist" from the StaySafeMN Campaign for you to go through prior to coming to work. These are two other questions we would like you to run through prior to coming to work.
 - a. Have you or anyone in your house had fever or flu-like symptoms in the past two weeks?
 - b. Have you or anyone in your house had a known exposure to COVID-19 in the past two weeks
 - i. If you answer yes to any of these questions you will be asked to go home and recommend that you get tested. Due to detasseling being a short season, instead of asking you to quarantine we will ask that you be done for the rest of the season. Bonuses will not be affected if you are done for the season due to any Covid-19 related circumstances.
4. After you have checked in, you will be asked to wait in a designated area until your entire crew has arrived. Once your crew has arrived you will load to go to the field. Masks/ face-coverings will be required while going to and from the field. We will be using hayracks to go to and from the fields as much as possible. We do have a few fields that we will be using a 15-passenger van or a bus to go to. The van/bus will be cleaned as needed.
5. Once you have arrived at the field your crew-leader will direct you where to go and get you started in the field. You are not required to wear a mask/ face-covering while in the field. When you come to the end of your row- please do your best to maintain social distancing or pull your mask/face-covering back up until you are put in a new row.
6. As usual we will be supplying a snack and a beverage, morning and afternoon. All snacks will be individually wrapped and one time use cups will be used. If you prefer to supply your own snack and water, that is up to you. We ask that if you choose to supply your own snack or water that it is left on the hay rack until your break. Hand sanitizer will be available for use during break time.
7. Due to COVID-19 we may be having lunch at the field. We will let you know when you get here if you need to take your lunch to the field with you. Picnic tables at the farm have been labeled as to how many people may sit at them.

PLEASE be respectful to those around you, we know that this is a hard time and we are doing our best to keep our employee's safe while getting the job done. Please let us know if you have any questions or concerns. Form W-4MN Employee Instructions

Complete this form for your employer to calculate the amount of Minnesota income tax to be withheld from your pay.

What's New?

Beginning in 2020, federal Form W-4 does not use withholding allowances. If you complete a 2020 Form W-4, you must complete Minnesota Form W-4MN to determine your allowances for Minnesota income tax withholding.

When should I complete Form W-4MN?

Complete Form W-4MN if any of the following apply:

- You begin employment
- You change your filing status
- You reasonably expect to change your filing status in the next calendar year
- Your personal or financial situation changes
- You claim exempt from Minnesota withholding (see Section 2 instructions for qualifications)
- You request an additional amount of tax deducted each pay period

If you have not had sufficient Minnesota income tax withheld from your wages, we may assess penalty and interest when you file your state income tax return.

Your employer may be required to submit copies of your Form W-4MN to the Minnesota Department of Revenue.

Note: You may be subject to a $500 penalty if you submit a false Form W-4MN.

What if I have completed federal Form W-4?

If you completed a Form W-4 from 2019 or in prior years, you may complete Form W-4MN to determine your allowances for Minnesota withholding purposes. If you completed a 2020 Form W-4, you must complete Form W-4MN to determine your allowances for Minnesota withholding.

Your Minnesota allowances must not be greater than your federal allowances.

What if I am exempt from Minnesota withholding?

If you claim exempt from Minnesota withholding, complete only Section 2 of Form W-4MN and sign the form to validate it. You must provide your employer with a new Form W-4MN by February 15 of each year if you claim exempt.

You cannot claim exempt from withholding if all of the following apply:

- Another person can claim you as a dependent on their federal tax return
- Your annual income exceeds $1,100
- Your annual income includes more than $350 of unearned income

What if I am a nonresident alien for U.S. income taxes?

If you are a nonresident alien, you are not allowed to claim exempt from withholding. You will check the single box for marital status regardless of your actual marital status and may enter one personal allowance on Step A. Enter zero on steps B, C, and E.

If you are resident of Canada, Mexico, South Korea or India and allowed to claim dependents, you may enter the number of dependents on Step D.

Section 1 — Minnesota Allowances Worksheet

Complete Section 1 to find your allowances for Minnesota withholding tax. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

If you expect to owe more income tax for the year than will be withheld, you can claim fewer allowances or request additional Minnesota withholding from your wages. Enter the amount of additional Minnesota income tax you want withheld on line 2 of Section 1

Nonwage Income

Consider making estimated payments if you have a large amount of "nonwage income." Nonwage income (other than tax-exempt income) includes interest, dividends, net rental income, unemployment compensation, gambling winnings, prizes and awards, hobby income, capital gains, royalties, and partnership income.

Two Earners or Multiple Jobs

If your spouse works or you have more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4MN. Usually, your withholding will be more accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4MN for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others.

Head of Household

You may claim Head of Household as your filing status if you are unmarried and pay more than 50 percent of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself, your dependents, and other qualifying individuals. Enter "1" on Step E if you may claim Head of Household as your filing status on your tax return.

Continued

Itemized Deductions and Additional Income Worksheet

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2020 Minnesota itemized deductions. For 2020, you may have to reduce your itemized deductions if your income is over $197,850 ($98,925) if you are married filing separately).
- 2 Enter one of the following based on your filing status:
 - a. $24,800 if Married Filing Jointly
 - b. $18,650 if Head of Household
 - c. $12,400 if Single or Married Filing Separately
- 3 Subtract step 2 from step 1. If zero or less, enter 0
- 4 Enter an estimate of your 2020 additional standard deduction (from page XX of the Form M1 instructions).
- 5 Add steps 3 and 4
- 6 Enter an estimate of your 2020 taxable nonwage income
- 7 Subtract step 6 from step 5. If zero, enter 0. If less than zero, enter the amount in parentheses.
- 8 Divide the amount on step 7 by $4,300. If a negative amount, enter in parentheses. Do not include fractions
- 9 Enter the number on step F of Section 1 on page 1
- 10 Add step 8 and 9 and enter the total here. If zero or less, enter 0. Enter this amount on line 1 of page 1.

What if I itemize deductions on my Minnesota return or have other nonwage income?

Use the Itemized Deductions and Additional Income Worksheet to find your Minnesota withholding allowances. Complete Section 1 on page 1, then follow the steps in the worksheet on the next page to find additional allowances.

Section 2 — Minnesota Exemption

Your employer will not withhold Minnesota taxes from your pay if you are exempt from Minnesota withholding. You cannot claim exempt from withholding if all of the following apply:

- Another person can claim you as a dependent on their federal tax return
- Your annual income exceeds $1,100
- Your annual income includes more than $350 of unearned income

Box A

Check box A of Section 2 to claim exempt if all of the following apply:

- You meet the requirements to be exempt from federal withholding
- You had no Minnesota income tax liability in the prior year and received a full refund of Minnesota tax withheld
- You expect to have no Minnesota income tax liability for the current year

Box B

Check box B of Section 2 if you are not claiming exempt from federal withholding, but meet the second and third requirements for box A.

Box C

Check box C in Section 2 to claim exempt if all of the following apply:

- You are the spouse of a military member assigned to duty in Minnesota
- You and your spouse are domiciled in another state
- You are in Minnesota solely to be with your active duty military spouse member

Boxes D-F

If you receive income from the following sources, it is exempt from Minnesota withholding. Your employer will not withhold Minnesota tax from that income when you check the appropriate box in Section 2.

- Box D: You receive wages as a member of an American Indian tribe living and working on the reservation of which you are an enrolled member.
- Box E: You receive wages for Minnesota National Guard (MNG) pay or for active duty U.S. military pay. MNG and active duty U.S. military members can claim exempt from Minnesota withholding on these wages, even if taxable federally. For more information, see Income Tax Fact Sheet 5, Military Personnel.
- Box F: You receive a military pension or other military retirement pay calculated under U.S. Code title 10, sections 1401 through 1414, 1447 through 1455, and 12733. You may claim exempt from Minnesota withholding on this income even if it is taxable federally.

Note: You may not want to claim exempt if you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) expect to have other forms of income subject to Minnesota tax and you want to avoid owing tax at the end of the year.

If you claim exempt from Minnesota withholding, you must provide your employer with a new Form W-4MN by February 15 of each year.

Nonresident Alien

If you are a nonresident alien for federal tax purposes, do not complete Section 2.

Form W-4MN Employer Instructions

What's New?

Beginning in 2020, federal Form W-4 will not determine withholding allowances used to determine the amount of Minnesota withholding. Employees completing a 2020 Form W-4 will need to complete 2020 Form W-4MN to determine the appropriate amount of Minnesota withholding.

Use the amount on line 1 of page 1 for calculating the withholding tax for your employees.

When does an employee complete Form W-4MN?

Employees complete Form W-4MN when they begin employment or when their personal or financial situation changes.

How should I determine Minnesota withholding for an employee that does not complete Form W-4MN?

If an employee does not complete Form W-4MN and they have a federal Form W-4 (from 2019 or prior years) on file, use the allowances on their federal Form W-4. If the employee does not complete a Form W-4MN, withhold Minnesota tax as if the employee is single with zero withholding allowances.

What if my employee claims to be exempt from Minnesota withholding?

If your employee claims exempt from Minnesota withholding, they must complete Section 2 of Form W-4MN. They must provide you with a new Form W-4MN by February 15 of each year.

When do I need to submit copies of a Form W-4MN to the department?

You must send copies of Form W-4MN to us if any of the following apply:

- The employee claims more than 10 Minnesota withholding allowances
- The employee checked box A or B under Section 2, and you reasonably expect the employee's wages to exceed $200 per week
- You believe the employee is not entitled to the number of allowances claimed

You do not need to submit Form W-4MN to us if the employee is asking to have additional Minnesota withholding deducted from their pay.

We may assess a $50 penalty for each Form W-4MN you do not file with us when required.

Mail Forms W-4MN to:

Minnesota Department of Revenue

Mail Station 6501

600 N. Robert St.

St. Paul, MN 55146-6501

What if my employee is a resident of a reciprocity state?

If your employee is a resident of North Dakota or Michigan and they do not want you to withhold Minnesota tax from their wages, they must complete Form MWR, Reciprocity Exemption/Affidavit of Residency. They must complete a Form MWR by February 28 of each year, or within 30 days after they begin working or change their permanent residence. See Withholding Fact Sheet 20, Reciprocity - Employee Withholding, for more information.

What is an invalid Form W-4MN?

A Form W-4MN is considered invalid if any of the following apply:

- There is any unauthorized change or addition to the form, including any change to the language certifying the form is correct
- The employee indicates in any way the form is false by the date they provide you with the form
- The form is incomplete or lacks the necessary signatures
- Both Section 1 and Section 2 were completed
- The employer information is incomplete

What if I receive an invalid form?

Do not use the invalid form to calculate Minnesota income tax withholding. Have the employee complete and submit a new Form W-4MN. If the employee does not give you a valid form, and you have an earlier Form W-4MN or Form W-4 (from 2019 or prior years) from them, use the earlier form to calculate their withholding. Otherwise, withhold taxes as if the employee is single and claiming zero withholding allowances.

What if my employee is a nonresident alien of the United States?

If the wages to this employee are subject to income tax withholding, you will use Table 1 and the procedure under Withholding Adjustment for Nonresident Alien Employees in IRS Publication 15-T to determine the correct Minnesota withholding tax. Do not use this procedure for nonresident alien students from India and business apprentices from India.

Step 2:

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

- (a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3–4); or
 (b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below for roughly accurate withholding; or
 (c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld ▶ ☐

TIP: To be accurate, submit a 2020 Form W-4 for all other jobs. If you (or your spouse) have self-employment income, including as an independent contractor, use the estimator.

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3:

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2020 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2019 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2020. You had no federal income tax liability in 2019 if (1) your total tax on line 16 on your 2019 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 18a, 18b, and 18c), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2020 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 16, 2021.

Your privacy. If you prefer to limit information provided in Steps 2 through 4, use the online estimator, which will also increase accuracy.

As an alternative to the estimator: if you have concerns with Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b); if you have concerns with Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c). If this is the only job in your household, you may instead check the box in Step 2(c), which will increase your withholding and significantly reduce your paycheck (often by thousands of dollars over the year).

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Expect to work only part of the year;
2. Have dividend or capital gain income, or are subject to additional taxes, such as the additional Medicare tax;
3. Have self-employment income (see below); or
4. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

If you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may instead check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is roughly accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. Step 3 of Form W-4 provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 972, Child Tax Credit and Credit for Other Dependents. You can also include other tax credits in this step, such as education tax credits and the foreign tax credit. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2020 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b)—Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Then, skip to line 3 1 $ _____
- 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.

 - b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b 2b $ _____
 - c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c 2c $ _____

Step 4(b)—Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2020 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040 or 1040-SR)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income 1 $ _____
- 2 Enter: $\left\{ \begin{array}{l} \bullet $24,800 \text{ if you're married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er)} \\ \bullet $18,650 \text{ if you're head of household} \\ \bullet $12,400 \text{ if you're single or married filing separately} \end{array} \right\}$ 2 $ _____
